

Empowering Energy Sector to digitize quickly

CHALLENGE

- Facing unprecedented operational challenges and an increased threat of cyberattacks, an energy sector company needed to adapt quickly during the pandemic
- New cyber threats, production and supply chain disruptions, and the sudden move to remote work, represented new challenges that needed to be resolved

SOLUTION PROVIDED

- Kryptos provided customized solutions using diverse Azure Cloud Services and Power BI
- Using Azure DevOps and other Azure Services, we created a wide-ranging project tracking and documentation suite that facilitates code management.
- We provided them with intuitive dashboards which was designed effectively to render all the Azure-powered models.

BENEFITS

- Employees gained valuable insights and benefitted from being able to create dashboards in no / low-code fashion
- Decision makers immediately used the new insights to improve resource allocation and purchasing efficiency, improving their resiliency and efficiency.
